

Carolina Resource Center for Eating Disorders

CRC for ED has served WNC as T.H.E. Center for Disordered Eating since 2004. With our new name, we remain the only nonprofit in North Carolina that provides education, resources and support to individuals, families and professionals concerned with disordered eating and recovery from eating disorders.

Celebrating some of our 2018-19 accomplishments with you...

Professional development &
community
outreach
over 1,975
participants

Support group
attendance 204
—————
47 new participants

31% increase in funds raised through our annual campaign

12th Annual HEAL
Conference
SOLD OUT again!

Helpline
served over 95
individuals

80% increase in treatment center
partner & corporate sponsorship

Thanks to your support, we continue developing and connecting resources to assist and advocate for those impacted by eating disorders!